DEDICATION

Don't be deceived if you see him rushing from class to class; this frantic demeanor lays a careful facade over his true mild-mannered nature. Even when torn between teaching two classes in the same period, Mr. Magnussen is able to maintain a friendly, easy-going composure. Whether explaining the muscular structure of a dead feline or pointing out the growth of secondary forests among Mayan ruins of Guatemala, he's always dedicated to teaching. With open ears and an open mind, Mr. Magnussen is one we can always depend on.

Who else would you want to see, after oversleeping and rushing to get to school before the first bell rings, but Mrs. Mulligan? Even when having a rough day, any student can be cheered up by her smile. From day to day, her sense of humor incites laughter among the faculty and students alike. When asked to do a favor, she responds without question, and never makes you feel as if you are imposing. Outside of school we can be sure that Mrs. Mulligan will be sitting in the stands, supporting our class' fundraising ventures, and making sure she greets everyone by name. Thanks, Mrs. Mulligan, we'll all miss you!

He's demonstrated his brilliance to us in his recollection of Freud's theories and his explanation of pre-World War I America. However, we all know that Mr. Fitz' true genius lies in his ability to relate. With each personal anecdote, goofy smile, and subtle word of advice, his compassion shines through. We admire Mr. FitzGerald because he doesn't stay locked away in his own box of facts. He reaches out with genuine care and feeling, not only in his job, but also for the students he teaches. With simple gestures, he establishes personal, but not pushy, relationships that we can only hope to imitate with our own acquaintances.

A TEAM WITH HEART

Led by Seniors Jake Nohe, Ben Peterson and Kevin Devito, the Boys' Soccer team had one of the most successful years in recent memory. After beating #1 seeded Westport in overtime, they went into the South Sectional Semi-finals against Hanover playing their hearts out. With the greatest number of wins since 1994, the team is looking forward to the return of eight seniors and another winning season.

REACHING THE TOURNAMENT

The Field Hockey team again made the tournament, unfortunately losing to Milton, 2-0, in the first round. Five seniors contributed their talents to the 18-game season, which was capped by beating Notre Dame to get into the tournament. Andi Shaughnessy was the top scorer and she and Sarah Kidder and Maggie O'Connor were named to the All-Stars.

(Missing: Kathleen McCarthy, Kerry McCarthy.)

A CHALLENGE MET

This year's team struggled to remain focused as each game was more challenging than the one before. But, as always, the Lady Skippers had fun together. The team was led by Sr. Capts. Jessie Zerendow, Jenny Chastain and Eileen Ridge, and coached by a very determined Deb Beal, who has always said, "Anything can happen on a windy day."

TURKEY DAY TREAT

The 1999 football season was one of close finishes. Led by Sr. Co-capts. Craig Parker and Liam O'Donnell, Cohasset's young team was unable to hold late leads against Nauset, Abington and Hanover. An exciting 14-14 tie with Hull on Thanksgiving gave us a 3-6-1 record. Srs. Kevin Andrews, Joe Carbone, Dan Mulligan, Joe Pergola and Matt Santoro helped fill the void created by the graduation of twelve starters from 1998. With many sophomores playing in key positions, the future looks bright in 2000.

Spirit Pages

With only 63 students in the senior class, producing a yearbook becomes more and more of a challenge. Yet, these senoirs have enthusiastically taken it on and have worked to meet their deadlines. Because seniors have so many other commitments, staffers have been assigned certain pages to complete. They draw on the assistance of student photographers, advisers, parents, coaches and office staff to write copy, sell ads and design layout. Veteran adviser Mrs. Ely is excited about the creativity brought to the staff by new co-adviser Ms. Muir. This year's book promises to be unique.

FOUR SENIORS AT THE HELM

The Boys' Basketball team was led by Sr. Capts. Kevin Andrews, Craig Parker and Khalil Madyun, supported by senior Jake Nohe. Highlights included beating Scituate in the Christmas Tournament and, after trailing 16-1, finishing the season with a come-from-behind win against Marshfield. The return of experienced underclassmen will definitely improve the team's record next year.

gymnastics

(1)Colby Durant, Nancy Durkin, Pattie Lacroix, Kristin Sheerin, Carlie Carter, Meredith Bixby, Katherine Coyne; (2)Coach Ardizzoni, Alicia Sanchez, Amy Marie, Jacki Berla, Katie Portanova, Sam Swadish, Danielle Connolly, Laura Good, Shelly Carter, Julie Callahan, Sarah Dennis, Kara Connerty. (Missing: Jaime Ferinick and Beth Jackson).

A SHINING SEASON

The Cohasset-Norwell Gymnastics team surpassed all expectations this year. Going into this season, the girls expected to finish only 5th in the league, but improved dramatically, finishing 2nd. Cohasset Capts. Carlie Carter and Kristin Sheerin filled the two all-around spots, while Katie Portanova, Katherine Coyne, Sarah Dennis, and Meredith Bixby all performed in top competing spots as well. The girls are anticipating another great season next year!

girls' basketball

(1)Heather Greene, La'Raine Langford; (2)Kerry Long, Maura O'Brien, Katie Wenmark, Lindsey Grossman, Liza Parker, Coach Carr.

THE FUTURE IS HERE

Since there were no returning underclassmen, the Girls' Basketball team played a sub-varsity schedule. However, they were fortunate to have an enthusiastic first-year coach, Ellen Carr, who encouraged the eight girls throughout their full schedule. The team is proud of its winning record and, with the skills gained in this building year, the future of CHS girls' basketball rests squarely on these talented young players.

A NEW TRADITION

Varsity Ice Hockey year 1999-2000 was an encouraging year. Led by Sr. Capts. Bill Good and Matt Pilczak, the team was a better skating team and a more competitive team than the previous year. The freshmen and sophomores were the core of the team. An unexpected high point was the establishment of the Alumni game that brought back many talented graduates. We look forward to this becoming a tradition every year. Good things are expected of this team next year.

A GRAPPLING POWERHOUSE

The wrestling team was filled with young talent this year and had a very impressive season with those grapplers. The team had to overcome some injuries, illness, and other obstacles but when they did, Coach Torin Sweeney and the four senior captains led the Skippers to just under a .500 record on the year. The young grapplers wrestled hard all season and will continue to fuel the powerhouse of Cohasset wrestling. You should be proud of your accomplishments!

swimming

(1)Erin Feeney, Jen Kreutzberg, S. Mayo; (2)Bryan Bilton, Chris Golden, Kate Stone, Maura Duffy, Coach Ferrazzi, Kate Liberty; (3)Ashley Faber, Alexis Bugley, Yasmine Afshar, Cara Foley, Jennifer Meehan, Kate Grimm

SKIPPERS & SAILORS GET WET

This season, the Cohasset Skippers joined with the Scituate Sailors to form the appropriately named "SCI-COH" Swim Team. Brought together by new coach, Mary Ferrazzi, and team tri-captains, Jen Meehan, Maura Duffy, and Chris Golden, this new union established some very tight bonds and created a strong foundation for great success in years to come.

cheerleading

(1)Co-capt. Amanda Cowing, Sr. Capt. Marcina Boone, Jenn Kurtz; (2)Co-capt. Betsy Anderson, Holly Dinsmore, Abby Coakley, Shawna Sullivan.

SMALL BUT SPIRITED

This cheering season was definitely the most spirited. Although the squad was small, they were eager to get out onto the court and support the team with great new cheers and stunts, no matter what the score. Senior Marcina Boone showed leadership and spirit and will be missed by those in the squad & in the stands!

skiing

SKI SEASON A SUCCESS

The Varsity Ski Team, fully self-funded, ended with one of its most successful seasons ever! Five qualified for the MIAA state championships at Berkshire East. The racers included Seniors Caitlin Stansell, Greg O'Keefe and Andrew McAuliffe, Sophomore David Krueger, and Freshman Maura McKenney. Thanks to the coaches, Bob Stansell and Jake Dane for all their help and support and congratulations on a great season!

The Way We Were

We were children in our places with the world beneath our feet.
And growing up was on our faces I remember yours so sweet.

So come walk a while with me and share the twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
But the bridge will only take you halfway there-
the last few steps you'll have to take alone.
